

ATJC Dues and Admission Rules

1. Admission: Members $2.00 per person
Non-members 3.00 " "
Annual membership dues 5.00 " "
2. Musicians announced as performers for an event are not to be charged admission for that event and neither are their spouses or dates. (For May 13, members of the John Roberts band plus Chuck Reiley plus Tommy Griffith have been announced as performers.) All interested musicians are urged to become dues-paying members and to attend events and pay admission when not performing. Perhaps the club's financial success will permit a more generous policy towards musicians in the future.
3. Ticket stubs from both member and non-member admissions are to be saved for a door-prize drawing at the band's last intermission. After the drawing, late comers are not to be charged admission.
4. Persons with press credentials, attending as music critics, are not to be charged admission but are urged to become dues-paying members.
